

VA BENEFITS

(Originally published February 1963)

One of the fringe benefits that failed to get included in this month's excellent and wry editorial on page nine is that occasionally one may be lucky enough to work with an associate like Aggie Thrash. We wish all pathologists were as attractive as Dr. Thrash, and we hope that someday she will write a fuller account of her experiences as a pathologist among the bureaucrats.

(c) The Bulletin of the Muscogee County (Georgia) Medical Society, "Doctor's Lounge", Feb 1963, Vol. X No.2, p.15